Product Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the product?

The product is an organization-supported solution designed to provide users with business functionality.

2. Who can use the product?

Authorized customers and employees with appropriate access may use the product.

3. How do I access the product?

Users should use their authorized credentials through the organization's supported access method.

4. What should I do if I cannot log in?

Verify your credentials and follow the password reset procedure if the password is no longer valid.

5. Where can I get support?

Users can contact the customer support team when they need assistance.